

Hopewell-Loudon PTO Meeting
November 2, 2009
Mr. Swanagan's Classroom #111

Present: Tammy Arbogast, Jill Beidelschies, Susan Beidelschies, Lisa Gelinas, Scott Hall, Jenny Harris, Brenda Lommerse, Beth McDonald, Geoff Palmer, Shelly Steinmetz

Treasurer's Report: Brenda reported a balance of $4729.93

Market Day: October Sales earned $168.58, total sales $372.15

Secretary's Report: Shelly read the October 5, 2009 minutes. Jill Beidelschies approved the minutes

Old Business:

PTO discussed the results of the Fall Carnival. The 2010 Class profited a total of $400.00 for running the games. PTO profited $258.71.

The Literacy by Design books are still pending approval for Mrs. Burn's classroom

Tammy reported the following information concerning the PTO Fall Book Fair

- PTO supplied the Elementary / High School library with $127.00 worth of books
- Amount of books sold at the Fall Book Fair totaled $3076.77
- $1538.39 Scholastic dollars were earned
- Each elementary teacher will receive $40.00 worth of books for their class library

New Business:

Mr. Palmer spoke about the NEOLA of Ohio student healthcare guidelines and policies

PTO will supply sandwiches, chips, drinks and desserts for the Parent-Teacher Conferences on Monday, November 16.

Santa Shoppe will be open on December 2, 3 and 4, with set-up being December 1. Volunteers are being called, and items are being purchased, priced and sorted to prepare for the event.

The updated PTO website was available to view

Next meeting: December 8

Respectfully submitted,

Shelly Steinmetz

Shelly Steinmetz